Greek Conference Concentration Options

Encounter – Question Christianity or faith in God? We will help create a kingdom worldview that dismisses clichés and myths of Christianity and helps provide a safe place to ask questions and investigate faith.

Connect – Following Jesus, but not sure what that means, or how to grow? This will help develop or grow disciplines to deepen relationship your with God. Learn core values of Bible study, community and evangelism.

Thrive - Have you been a Christian for a while, but are struggling to make the pieces fit? Do you question how your faith can co-exist with your Greek experience? Not sure how to fully integrate that relationship into your everyday life? This concentration will provide practical help with specific areas of life that are holding you back from growing with Christ. We will learn that God is a God of second chances and that following God is not about behavior modification, rather an internal change with external results.

Lead – (Important, must be current or potential Greek ministry leader). Are you a missionally minded leader in Christian ministry on your campus? This concentration will focus on how God is calling you to be faithful in your house or across the Greek system. We will share the vision behind the philosophy and strategy of Greek ministry, and define the integrity of a leader and the passion and urgency with which we must lead. You will receive specific training in areas such as Bible study, prayer evangelism, discipleship.

Influence – (Important, must be a graduating senior or been through Lead - formerly known as Greek Ministry - to qualify). God's role in our lives isn't simply internal, or to be shown to our peers. God is a God of outreach, justice and full-life living wherever you are. Whether your influence is across the campus or in the marketplace, we'll discuss the stewardship of gifts God has given us for the sake of Gods kingdom. You'll learn how to lead in life from a Biblical perspective and be prepared to thrive in the post-college world.
