

Trax Technologies - www.traxtech.com based in Scottsdale, AZ - with growing offices in Latin America, Eastern Europe and Asia is seeking an IT Manager. Trax Technologies is a growing global company servicing Fortune 500 companies in the Freight Payment, Data Management and Supply Chain Industry.

Please send inquiries to Andy Johnson at Andy.Johnson@TraxTech.com along with your resume and expressed interest in the position.

Role Description - IT Manager

Summary

This is an Information Technology Leadership position responsible for project management, resource management, supervision of IT professionals, and communication of IT services and support. This individual is responsible for IT strategic and/or tactical planning, implementation, operation and evaluation for the Infrastructure & Facilities, Application Testing & Support, and Process Operations teams. Additionally, the individual is responsible for effective communication and workflow monitoring among the teams and the organization. This position is responsible for identifying and recommending technology resources needed to support the company's goals. This position reports to the Engineering Team leader. The team leaders of the Infrastructure & Facilities, Application Testing & Support, and Process Operations teams will report to the IT Manager position.

Duties and Responsibilities

1. Direct, facilitate and/or provide strategic and tactical planning for the IT teams in support of the company's goals
2. Develop cohesive backup and recovery strategies in compliance with ISO 17799 in support of organizations DRP.
3. Develop and manage IT programs and services to support organizational goals through appropriate use of IT resources.
4. Develop and manage budget and budget reporting for technology, services, and personnel.
5. Provide resources and guidance for the professional development and training of the IT staff.
6. Oversee the design, creation and implementation of a reports structure necessary to monitor the health of the IT organization.
7. Lead and or participate in IT committees, forums or projects supporting the continuous improvement of technology for the organization and its customer's needs.
8. Create opportunities for collaboration among IT team members and the development or business teams' staff.
9. Research, design and implement appropriate technology applications to support communication, access to information, improved productivity, and instruction.
10. Performs other related duties as assigned.